Parent Directed Home Education, Grades K-12 This program empowers parents to take the lead in their children's education, with support from The Centre for Learning@HOME in curriculum selection and program planning. Families benefit from expert guidance and funding to enhance the home education experience. Each of these sessions will provide an overview of our parent-directed home education program. Learn what home education is, how it works and what it could look like in your home. Each session will highlight how CFL partners with parents to ensure a well-rounded program that meets the learning needs of your child. This session is geared for parents with children in grades K-12. A question-and-answer period will follow.
